The MBI retreat on October 16-18, 2009 will once again celebrate the diversity of intellectual pursuits that comprise modern molecular biology at UCLA: molecular medicine, cell biology, developmental biology, immunology, microbiology, gene regulation, structural biology, biochemistry, genomics, bioinformatics, and beyond.

For all of the above, plus a poster session (including cash award for Best Poster) and plenty of free time to enjoy tennis, volleyball, basketball, a fireside jacuzzi, hiking trails and vistas—JOIN US!
